

Dr. Porter on the Titanic.

Dr. J. W. Porter, pastor of the first Baptist church Lexington and editor of the Western Recorder in his sermon in his church Sunday speaking upon the sinking of the Titanic among other things said:

"Our last and only consolation is, that 'all things work together for good to them that loved God, and to them who are the called according to his purpose.' Let us at least, strive to learn some lasting lessons of living from this unspeakable misfortune.

"Picture, if you please for a moment, the passengers in this floating palace, soundly sleeping in their beds of luxury and ease, dreaming of loved ones far away. Without warning, by a mighty crash, they are awakened, soon to learn that they must leave a sinking ship to grapple with the dangers of the powerful but pitiless sea. Only a short hour and the ringing laughter, the sparkling champagne and the voluptuous dance made merry the fast flying moments."

"After all the most heartless and hopeless feature of this calamity, it is thought, that from a human standpoint at least, it might have been easily avoided. Speeding at well nigh the speed limit of ocean travel, surrounded by a field of icebergs, of which the officers of the ship were well aware.

"Yet in spite of this they sped on 'into the mouth of death and the jaws of hell.' Truly it was, 'New York, heaven or hell in five days.' The speed craze that has taken possession of many of our people is scarcely less than a form of insanity, which according to its degree should merit the penitentiary or the lunatic asylum. Life has become the cheapest of our commodities. The scarcity of lifeboats was quite sufficient to account for the fearful loss of life. There was plenty of room for golf-links, swimming pools and other forms of amusement, but no room for the very things that would have saved sixteen hundred lives."

"A spirit of degenerate luxury is fast taking possession of our people. It is this self-same spirit that caused the downfall of Babylon, Persia, Greece and Rome. It is a fact that no nation ever perished from poverty, but the shores of time are strewn with the wreckage of those that have been lost through degenerate luxury. With many of us the attainment of our ideals would mean an ignominious death. At our own doors this godless spirit is manifest. It is reported that five couples of this city recently disposed of $75 worth of drink at one sitting."

"There is one thing about death that I have always admired—it has no pets, and plays no favorites. John Jacob Astor, with his millions, and the pauper with his penury, met on a dead level in this drama of death. The philosopher and the man who earned his living with pick and shovel, knew no distinction in this carnival in death and desolation."

"But even the sinking of the Titanic sinks into insignificance when compared to other tragedies about us. Last year America buried one hundred thousand drunkards, and yet how little have we heard of this gigantic slaughter."

NOTES From MEADOWBROOK FARM

By William Pitt

Rape is popular with hogs.

Very fat fowls are poor layers.

A horse suffering from colic should be kept quiet.

Asparagus may also be forced near cellar furnaces.

As tillers of the soil, earth worms constitute a great army.

Put kerosene on the roosts frequently to keep down chicken lice.

Teach the colt to eat a mixture of oats, wheat bran and linseed meal.

There is something in the first milk that the calf needs, and should have.

Remember to treat your cow with consideration in these days and nights.

The demands on the foal's digestive system for nourishment is very great.

A flock of ewes rightly handled should produce 125 per cent. of lambs.

It is the income from each sheep that should determine the value of the flock.

Every progressive keeper separates the light-colored honey from the dark fall honey.

Unless the bird is extremely valuable the ax is the best remedy for a sick chicken.

The cow that is allowed to fall off in her milk flow is seldom made to regain it at a profit.

Skimp your sheep on good pasture and they will skimp you on mutton. Works both ways.

Rabbits do great damage to young trees during winter, especially when snow covers the ground.

The use of fruit is a great help toward keeping in good health, and more of it should be grown.

It's a mistake to expect the miraculous or abnormal from your cows. Better make them work naturally.

If sows are expected to raise a fall litter, it is best to wean the spring pigs at from 8 to 10 weeks old.

When there is good stuff in the feed box the heifer soon learns to be a good barn cow when night comes.

Do not try to winter the cows without grain. Wheat bran, corn-meal and oil-meal will be found valuable.

Mrs. Wm. Adams and children visited George Lyle and family Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Miller and Miss Jessie Wireman were the guests of Mrs. Sarah Adams Friday.

Mr. John Lyle, who is attending school at Stanton, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Misses Anna and Maggie Broadus, of Miller's Creek, visited their sister, Mrs. Maynard Newkirk, from Saturday till Monday.

Sheep are comfort lovers and the man who neglects to provide them with good, dry shelter makes a costly error.

Irregularity in feeding—that is, a good ration one day and a poor one the next, will play havoc with the best of cows.

Peach trees can be planted any time between last and first frost; the earlier in the winter they are planted the better.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.
